PURSUE  EXCELLENCE

Funding of Litigation

Legislation is on the way to open up new ways of funding litigation – make sure you are up to speed with the options for your clients.

Our speaker, Tim Edward, of Maclay Murray & Spens, has years of experience of large-scale commercial litigations. With his formidable expertise, he will clarify and illuminate the issues in what promises to be a fascinating and engaging seminar. The topics covered will include:

- Current rules for speculative actions and likely future rules following the Taylor Report
- When is funding application possible?
- The options: ATE insurance; third party funding; speculative action;
- DBAs in the future
- How to assess risk and cost
- Agreements to be put in place with client and funder
- Handling litigation subject to such agreements
