Land Registration: A risk-based approach

Frances will present a comprehensive session on land registration in a post-2012 Act era with emphasis on how solicitors can minimise pitfalls, risk and liability. Topics covered will include reliance on the Land Register; liability under the new Act; dealing with registration of new and existing title conditions and encumbrances; the Keeper's warranty and what it does and does not cover; how and when the Register can be rectified; how to deal with titles that were registered under the 1979 Act; Advance Notices; and some common pitfalls that can lead to rejection.

The Speakers

Frances
Rooney

Frances Rooney, formerly of Harper Macleod and founding member of Lexares LLP, is a recognised expert on land registration and property law. She regularly speaks at CPD events and is a prolific property law author, counting the Conveyancing volume of the Stair Memorial Encyclopaedia among her publications.

The venue

Due to Government guidelines and COVID-19, CCPD will be delivering its seminars online, available on desktop and mobile, to ensure that our customers continue to receive the high-quality training they've come to expect.

Please get in touch if you have any questions, and we look forward to welcoming you in person before long.

Unable to attend?

If your diary precludes attendance at the event, the course materials will be available for purchase. Please contact us for more information.
